1.0 A Senior woman performs the following jumps in her short program.

- 3S (preceded by connecting steps)
- 2A
- 2S

What is the correct call for the double Salchow: 2S + C* (double Salchow combo invalidated) or 2S +C?

The correct call for the last jump element is 2S + C. Because the jump combination in Senior Women can consist of one triple and one double, the 2S + C is the allowed double for the combination. This procedure would be the same for all categories for which a triple jump must be included in the jump combination and for which the second jump can be a double: Junior Men, Senior Women, Senior Men.
